The season is about to get under way!

After the wettest winter since records began, amazing storms and the winter blues, it's time to plan for some fun activities in the spring and summer.

Here are some of the Solent Highlights

From our base at Southampton you benefit from easy access to the lively towns and quaint coastal villages or even places of historical interest in the Solent area. Your day charter includes stopovers at excellent marinas allowing you to unwind in traditional pubs, see places of interest or just do a bit of shopping.

Cowes

With varied and challenging waters to be sailed virtually from its doorstep, coupled with a vibrant and cosmopolitan atmosphere, it's not surprising that a visit to Cowes will have you fooled into thinking you had arrived on foreign shores.

Lymington

Once well known for being a smugglers refuge, due to the winding channel harbour entrance and subterranean passages leading from the quay, Lymington is now a haven for yachting enthusiasts who enjoy the advantages of the double tides.

Medina River

Running between the towns of Cowes and Newport, the Medina River offers four miles of relaxing cruising for those seeking respite from the
